PLANTATION,

one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. The other tract, on the same road, contains 350 acres, 50 of which is good bottom land, on Fishing Creek, and sufficient wood for fences and fuel, but no house except a barn. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

12 head fat Cattle, 20 head Sheep, 50 barrels old Corn, a good Wheat Thrasher, capable of getting out 300 bushels Wheat per day;

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Oct. 12, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election Thursday, October 18th.

The Late Colored Convention.

The Standard, of yesterday, contains four columns and a half of the last day's proceedings of this Convention. It publishes, also, letters from Gov. Worth, Ex-Prov. Gov. Holden, Ex-Gov. Graham, B. F. Moore, Esq., Ex-Gov. Bragg, Hon. D. M. Barringer, Col. Bumford, Gen. Carr and Col. Brady, all breathing a kind and interested spirit in the welfare of our colored population. The letter addressed to the Senior Editor of the Sentinel was answered in person by an address of twenty minutes, in which he manifested the same spirit. The official proceedings of the Convention have not been sent us for publication, which relieves us from any obligation to publish, and which, on account of their length, would burden our columns beyond their capacity.

Since the establishment of the Sentinel, it has advocated those measures which their new relations demanded, in order to the material and intellectual improvement of the black race, as well as such laws as would secure them equal rights with the white race before the law, in the protection of life, property and liberty.

The laws of North Carolina, as far as we know, afford the colored people of the State the most ample protection. We know that Gov. Worth has specially interested himself in their behalf, as far as his authority would permit, in directing the special attention of the Judiciary to the proper enforcement of the law; and we are certain that our Judges have all laboréd earnestly to this end and have done their whole duty. We have reason to believe that the County Courts and magistracy of the State have done the same.

It is possible, that, in inaugurating a new code, or at least laws, which, for the first time in their history, apply to the condition and rights of the colored race equally with the whites, some instances may have occurred in which Grand Juries, magistrates, and other officers of the law, may have neglected their duty, and a few persons of color, as well as white persons, may not have been justly and promptly dealt by. But these cases must have been rare. It is manifestly a great wrong to society for Grand Juries or officers of the law to neglect their duty in a single instance. If we knew of instances with all the facts, which exhibited clear dereliction of duty, we should expose the delinquent parties. Yet we think it certain, that, where one instance can be found in which such dereliction resulted in injury to the colored race, twenty could be searched out, in which the whites have been injured and the blacks have gone unpunished.

We deeply regret to find, in these proceedings, the following passionate, and we believe unjust and to a great extent untrue, representation of the state of things in North Carolina. It is taken from the address to the people of North Carolina, and signed by Geo. A. Rice, J. T. Schenck, H. Locket (Handy Lockhart, of this city,) and J. A. Sykes. The extract ends thus:

"FELLOW-CITIZENS: Can we look to you for protection or not, to shield us from the murderous hand? Oh, humanity, where is thy blush! Our defenceless wives and children, fathers, sons and brothers are beaten with clubs, robbed, shot and killed in various localities, and the authorities regard it not. We beg you as white men in authority to shield our defenceless heads and guard our little homes. We appeal to your religion and humanity."

Now we deny palpably, until we have proof to the contrary, that the above truly represents the facts of the situation in North Carolina. As we said above, there may be isolated cases of neglect to enforce the law, but we do not believe that such cases have occurred, where they have been brought to the notice of the proper authorities. Every Magistrate and every Judge in the State is sworn to enforce the law, and they are liable to impeachment on failure.—Every Grand Juror is liable to indictment for perjury who fails to do his duty. Where colored people or whites, in any County, know of the existence of such cases, they are bound to communicate them to the magistracy or Judges for investigation.

But admitting that there are instances of this kind, is it just, is it kind and right, at a time like this, to endeavor to inflame and arouse, by such public appeals, the already over-wrought frenzy of the public mind? There is evidence of the most barbarous outrages of some colored desperadoes upon white males and females in New Hanover, Craven, Lenoir and other counties, who, as yet, have eluded the law. Would it be just to the colored people of the State, for the press to make out of these cases inflammable appeals to the passions of the whites of the State against the colored people generally?—The mischief of such publications must be apparent to every one, white and black, and we are surprised that any public press in North Carolina should give place to such an inflammatory appeal, without comment.

We are glad to find the address of Ex. Prov. Gov. Holden to the Convention of the right stamp in the main. There is, however, an intimation which we think the facts do not warrant. What he says about South Carolina doing full justice to the blacks, in its connections, is an intimation that North Carolina has not done so. We are not aware that our people of color have any good reason to complain of what North Carolina has done, and long before South Carolina. The interests, the peace and happiness of both races in North Carolina are identical, and everything should be avoided which would in the least disturb the friendly relations which should exist between them.

The True Policy.

Our people have, for some time past, been looking anxiously, and perhaps, some of them hopefully, to the result of the Northern elections. While despondent at the indications, they could not relinquish all hope that a returning reason and sense of justice were at hand, and that the friends of Constitutional Union might prevail. They have been disappointed.—They realize that passion, prejudice and violence have not yet run their full course and attained the point whence re-action must take place. We hope that they will now turn their attention entirely away from Federal politics. Would that we had had less to do with them in the past! They have been, literally, to us, "a sea of troubles."

On one point, we believe the minds of our people are firmly made up. They are resolved neither to invite or voluntarily to accept degradation and ruin. If these are to come, it shall be by no suicidal hand. They will not ratify the Howard amendment. This is a wise and manly resolution. Having taken it, as we are sure they have, let us await consequences with trustfulness, patience and dignity. Let us seek, in close attention to our material affairs, in the cultivation of our domestic and social interests, in home pursuits and friendly association with one another, diversion from our troubles, real or menaced, and the surest means of extrication. Let the plough, the loom and the anvil drive politics out of our heads. Wrongfully and wickedly debarred from showing an affectionate interest in the government of our fathers, let us love our noble old State with an increased fervor.

We have discussed the whole Radical theory of reconstruction, and especially the Howard amendment, as fully and thoroughly, we believe, as any of our cotemporaries anywhere, North or South. We have tried to do our duty in warning our people against it, and we are gratified in believing that our course is appreciated and applauded. We have nothing to add upon the subject, and after JONATHAN WORTH shall have been re-elected Governor next week, and a conservative Legislature shall have been secured, we do not care if politics are expunged from the columns of the Sentinel for an indefinite time to come.

"A large number of North Carolina families, numbering about three hundred and fifty altogether, arrived yesterday on the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and went up last evening on the steamer George Leary to Baltimore, on their way to the Western States for permanent settlement. Most of these are poor families and leave the land of their nativity and birth, tar and turpentine, to better materially their worldly fortunes. The condition of many certainly could not very well become worse than it has been. Most do not display a very striking amount of intelligence, and it is a noticable fact that the clothing of most of the men is largely made up of Confederate gray. Among them are many claiming to have been loyalists during the war, and who give, as the reason for leaving their native State, the persecutions to which they are subjected in the South on account of having been Union men."—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

There it is at last. We have been expecting it for some time. When these emigrants passed through Raleigh, one of their leaders informed a gentleman of the city that one of the chief inducements impelling them to leave the State was that they might go where they could get a white man's chance, which they feared, under the threatening aspect of our national affairs, they would not long be able to have in North Carolina. If they told a different story, at any time, and alleged that they left to avoid persecution, on account of their "loyalty," they waited to do so until they got out of the State, where they knew no one would believe them. But the truth is, they never told any such ridiculous tale, ignorant and depraved as the Herald's correspondent intimates that they are.—The whole statement is a fabrication, of a peice with the other vile slanders that have been invented to injure our State and people.

The letter, from which the foregoing is an extract, was written from Norfolk. Wonder if Capt. Tourgee, the "pond-dragger," is not fishing for 'dead niggers' in that aquatic vicinage?

Forewarned,—Forearmed!

We again admonish the friends of Gov. Worth and President Johnson, the true friends of constitutional Union in the State, that the Radical faction, though they have utterly failed in getting out open and manly opposition, are working, day and night, in order to take us by surprise, if possible. They hope that, in our full sense of security, thousands of Conservative voters may absent themselves from the polls, and that the vote may thus be made very small. Even then they are not deluded enough to expect success for their candidate, who is not a candidate, (if we may be allowed thus to define Gen. Dockery's position,) but they will claim, if we do not give Gov. Worth an overwhelming majority, as we must and will, that the people are not decidedly committed against Radicalism, with its Howard amendment. Let us speak "unmistakably," friends!

WHATEVER SIDE ISSUES may be presented, we beg the people to waive them for the present. The absorbing and paramount question, at this crisis, is: "Are we for or against President Johnson and his policy?" Side issues can take care of themselves hereafter. Vote for no man for the Legislature who is not sound, sure and reliable, beyond the shadow of doubt or suspicion, upon the great issue!

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has stood up manfully for justice to the conquered South. It is for this that the fury of Radical passion is hurled against him. Shall the people of North Carolina be guilty of the cowardice and ingratitude of deserting their benefactor at this critical period of his administration? Never! never!

Holden still urges the Radicals to vote for Dockery. That is on a par with the Ragged mountain boys voting as they still do, for Tom. Jefferson for President.—Pet. Index.

For the Sentinel.

Gov. Holden's Pamphlet,—Its Misrepresentations and Its Duplicity.

A pamphlet copy of the proceedings of a late meeting of "loyalists" in Raleigh, together with an address to the people of North Carolina from Gov. Holden, so-called, has fallen into my hands, and if you will allow me the space in the columns of the Sentinel, I propose to review, briefly, some of its most remarkable features, and to expose some of its unblushing misrepresentations and perversions of truth.—Of the Convention proceedings I need say nothing, for though they occupy the front ground of the picture, they are really devoid of both interest and importance, and are simply made the pretext for the circulation of the peculiar views and fabrications of the leading factionist and agitator in this State, the aforesaid Gov. Holden.

The opening paragraphs of Gov. Holden's address are fair samples of the whole, in recklessness of assertion and duplicity of purpose.

"The rebellion," says he, "in its progress, had deprived these States of all civil government. The States remained but their governments had ceased to exist." I call particular attention to this declaration, for, in falsity and audacity, it exceeds anything ever seen in print. Every man and woman in North Carolina knows, as well as Mr Holden, that the statement is utterly unfounded. From the beginning to the ending of the Confederacy, the State governments remained precisely as they were previous to the war, there having been no change or suspension, whatever, in their constitutions, and very little, if any, in their laws or administration. Civil justice was everywhere administered faithfully, without break or hindrance, or the suspension of habeas corpus, and the political administrations of the States were as regular and harmonious during as before the war. Gov. Ellis was in office when the State seceded, and remained in the discharge of his duties until his death, when he was regularly succeeded according to the ancient forms and usages of the State. All other civil officers, Legislature, Executive and Judicial, remained untouched by the progress of the war. It was so in all the seceding States. When the Confederacy fell, we had the same State constitutions and governments that we had before the war, and their destruction was decreed from Washington and was not produced by secession.

But this is the least malicious and mischievous mis-statement contained in Gov. Holden's address, and we have dwelt upon it simply to indicate to the reader how entirely unworthy of belief, politically, that gentleman is, and what contempt he has for the common sense of the people, now that he is blinded by malice and urged on his career by the goadings of disappointed ambition. On page 4 of his address, Gov. Holden employs the following language: "After four years of exhausting war, we had peace. Every citizen seemed to submit cheerfully to the new condition of things, and the hope was general that the State would soon be restored to the Union." This is entirely true and Gov. Holden tells us further that the government of North Carolina was made new "by the voluntary action of its citizens, and was prepared, as many thought, to be admitted to the great family of States. The forms were all there, but the proper spirit was wanting."

I desire that the people of North Carolina will ponder well this language of Gov. Holden, and see in it his excessive treachery, duplicity and misrepresentation. He is forced to admit that the State had voluntarily complied with all the requirements of the federal authority,—that its "new forms were all there," and that the State was prepared to be re-admitted into the Union. He admits, too, that the people had "cheerfully submitted" to this condition of things. The question then arises, in the mind of every candid inquirer, why was the State of North Carolina denied participation in the federal government, and why are her representatives now refused admission into Congress?—The lame and pitiful excuse offered is that the "proper spirit was wanting" among our people! In other words, that the people of North Carolina were hypocrites and perjurers, unworthy the belief or confidence of honest men! I need not pause long to refute this foul calumny upon the people of North Carolina. Every man and woman in the State knows and feels that the assertion is false and slanderous, and the last resort of a desperate politician. It is an assertion directly in conflict with what President Johnson has said, and what all who honestly sustain the President's policy have said, and do say. The President has urged upon Congress, again and again, the admission of North Carolina and all the seceding States. He has repeatedly declared that all of them had readily complied with his requirements—that their people were loyally disposed and obedient to the laws; and in his formal proclamations he has repeatedly declared the States fully restored to the Union and entitled to representation! He sent Gen. Grant to the South to examine the temper of the people, and he has reported that the spirit of loyalty among them was all that could be desired; and subsequently Generals Steadman and Fullerton were sent to each of the seceding States for a similar purpose, and they have reported our people well disposed toward the negro and the government. These facts, therefore, stand directly opposed to the gratuitous, unfounded and malicious declarations of Gov. Holden, and stamp his assertions as foul calumnies upon his State and people.

But Gov. Holden seeks to give some plausibility to his unblushing misrepresentations by asserting that the President's plan of restoration embodies the "test oath," and that because the people of the South did not elect such men to Congress as could subscribe that oath, they were therefore rightfully excluded from their seats, and the States themselves from the Union. Unfortunately for this statement, there are at least two positive evidences of its unmitigated falsehood. In the first place, the President has urged, and now urges and insists upon the admission of Southern representatives to Congress. This is the very ground upon which Mr. Johnson is now fighting the Radical agitators in Congress, and denouncing them for keeping up the strife of the country. Would the President do this, if it were true, as Holden asserts, that he regards the "test oath" as an essential part of his plan, or if he thought the South had elected disloyal representatives to Congress? Could he, or would he, fight our battles for another moment if Gov. Holden tells the truth? Would he ask Congress to open their doors to the disloyal secessionists whom Mr. Holden falsely alleges to have been chosen to represent us?

But this declaration of Gov. Holden is stamped as false by the additional fact that Congress has never offered to admit representatives from the South upon any conditions or terms whatever! Congress has never opened, or proposed to open, its doors to "test oath" men or any other sort of men from the South! On the contrary, the very first act of Congress was to appoint a blockading committee of the Joint Houses, known as the "Committee of Fifteen," whose sworn duty it was to exclude all the representatives from the South without any regard to their capacity to take the test oath or any other sort of oath, and upon the avowed ground that the President's plan was wrong, and that Congress alone had the right to restore the Union. Nor did that committee ever report in favor of the admission of a single candidate from the South, except at the close of the session in the case of Tennessee, which I shall presently discuss. And yet, Gov. Holden has the effrontery to assert that the people of the South are excluded from representation in Congress because they have not elected what he and Thad Stevens are pleased to call loyal representatives! He knows, and every other other man knows, that the South has been denied representation solely because her vote in Congress would destroy the two-thirds power of the Radicals; and these States are to be kept out of the Union because their electoral vote in 1868 would, in all human probability, re-elect Mr. Johnson President of the United States and crush the Jacobins.

But this is not a full exposure of this monstrous misrepresentation of Gov. Holden, by which he seeks to throw all the blame of a dissevered Union upon his own people and section, and to entirely exonerate Stevens and Sumner and Wade and their wicked associates in the crime of agitation. He says we have elected disloyal representatives to Congress, and, therefore, Congress has properly rejected them.—Now, what are the facts, as presented by himself? On page 6, Holden admits that at least "one" of the North Carolina Senators is a "loyal man." Very well. Why, then, did not his loyal Congress admit him, or propose to admit him to his seat? In Virginia, I know, personally, that at least five of the representatives, and two Senators, chosen to Congress, can take the test oath, and are ready to do so. Will Gov. Holden please tell us why they were not admitted to their seats in a "loyal" and "patriotic" Congress? But look at the State of Tennessee, where all the Senators and representatives could subscribe the test oath, and whose loyalty was unquestionable. Were they not excluded from Congress until the close of the late session, and only admitted them because the Legislature of that State had ratified the Howard amendment to the Constitution? In the face of these overwhelming and crushing facts, Gov. Holden has the unblushing hardihood to assert that the South is excluded from the Union because of the test oath, and that the policy of the President is a failure, not through the madness and meanness of Congress, but by the disloyalty of our people!

Here let the good people of North Carolina pause for a moment and consider this extraordinary course of Gov. Holden. The President of the United States is satisfied with what the people of the South have done in the work of restoration, nor does he ask or require them to do anything more. He does not assail them as "disloyal," or treacherous, or unkind to him, or unfaithful to their oaths or obligations. On the contrary, he asks them to stand by him in his plan of restoration and to oppose the plans of Congress and their Constitutional amendment. He has declared in all his speeches that the South is now the loyal, and the Radical North the disloyal, portion of the Union. Mr. Seward says the South is ready for admission and should be admitted, and all the Conservatives of the North say the same thing, while the whole people of the South know and feel it to be true. In the teeth of all these facts Gov. Holden stands up in the capital of his own State, and taking sides with our enemies, attempts, like the viper, to sting to death the very bosom that has warmed him into life! And where is the motive which has prompted him to thus array himself against his own section, his State, his people and his kindred, and to become their traducer? It is explained in a few words in his own address, on page 5. Here it is:

"The Provisional Governor (Holden) left some four thousand loyal persons in office. * * * With few exceptions, all of them that could be reached by the Governor (Worth) and the Legislature have been ejected from office, and persons less loyal have been appointed in their places."

Here, Messrs. Editors, is the milk in the cocoanut. Here is the secret of Gov. Holden's treachery to the President's policy and second treachery to his own people. He ran for Governor and was beaten by Gov. Worth, and some of his appointees have been superceded by others! Having failed to be be promoted by the people who knew him best, he has now spread his sails to catch the breeze that comes over the spirit of the South like the deadly simoon of the desert, and hopes to vault into office and power at the hands of a revolutionary Congress which is seeking to undo all the work of restoration performed by the President! In full league with our enemies, he has the audacity to pretend to be our friend!

There is one other feature in this manifesto of Gov. Holden upon which I desire to submit a word of comment, and then I will leave him.

He favors the Constitutional amendment, and in order to make it acceptable to the people, he undertakes to represent that there is very little, if any difference, between that "plan" and the President's plan of restoration. Here is his own language:

"There is, then, no material difference between the President's plan and that of Congress."

The purpose of Gov. Holden here is to make the people believe that the President has a plan for amending the Constitution so little different from the Howard amendment that the people of North Carolina should at once adopt the latter. But what is the truth of the matter? Why the President, so far from favoring the Howard amendment, or any other amendment, as the condition of restoration, sent to Congress a special Message, in which he entered his formal and solemn PROTEST against its adoption, and urged upon all the States its prompt rejection! He and his friends fought the Howard amendment at every stage of its progress through Congress. They fought it for weeks in the Tennessee Legislature and they are fighting it now in every State of the Union, and they urge the South to fight it to the bitter end. The President is not only opposed to the amendment, but declares that Congress, as now constituted, had no right to propose amendments to the Constitution! Gov. Holden, therefore, urges the people of his State to adopt amendments which their representatives had no voice in proposing, which the President and all the Conservatives of the North urge us not to adopt, and which all of us know would be ruinous to us forever! He urges us to adopt an amendment which he knows is to be introductory to negro suffrage, and which the Radicals declare will not be sufficient to admit Southern representatives without negro suffrage. Is this what he really wants? Having lost the confidence of the masses of the white people of his State, can he think that there is no hope for his political aspirations in the future but in the favors of enfranchised negroes?

Before closing this review of Gov. Holden's tissue of falsehoods and slanders upon the people of North Carolina, I desire to give him credit for at least one unintentional truth. He says on page 7:

"I tell the President that his plan has been marred and destroyed by malcontents and traitors at this end of the line."

This is true in a large degree. If the President's plan has been destroyed at "this end of the line," it has been done in great part by such "malcontents and traitors" as W. W. Holden, Jack Hamilton, Brownlow, and kindred characters, who were pretended friends of his original plan of restoration, but who have basely deserted his standard and consorted with his enemies, and the enemies of the country, in their attempt to revolutionize the government, remodel the Federal and State Constitutions, disgrace and ruin the people of the South, and finally to destroy public liberty.

Falsehoods of the Standard.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Oct. 1864.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—In the Standard, of the 4th. instant, Mr. Holden says that he has "evidence of the most undoubted character, that it is not safe for Union men in certain localities West of this, to announce their views from the stump. We know that one of our worthiest public men has been driven from the stump and silenced by armed ex-rebels," &c.

I am credibly informed, that the above piece of information, was communicated to Mr. Holden by Calvin J. Cowles, a candidate for the State Senate for this district, and I am likewise truthfully informed, by Col. R. V. B. Cowan and other gentlemen, who were present when this occurrence was said to have taken place, that it is a base falsehood, without the smallest coloring of truth to rest upon. Who is guilty of the falsehood, I do not pretend to say, but it lies between the Standard and Cowles. It is most surprising that men will, for any purpose, basely slander not only their neighbors, but more than three-fourths the people of the State. The following is Col. Cowan's statement to us, corroborated by others:

The candidates for the Senate and Commons for Iredell, met at Westerman's, on a public day, to address the people. It was agreed between them, that no one of them should exceed a half hour in making his talk. Mr. Cowles, perhaps, led off, and not only occupied a whole hour, but desired to continue, and only by remonstrance from the other parties would he desist. The other candidates for the Senate followed, confining themselves to a half hour.—When the last one had concluded, late in the evening, and the time had arrived for the Commoners to speak, it being near night, Mr. Cowles again took possession of the stand to make another speech. His conduct was so unreasonable, that the crowd, excepting his peculiar friends, protested against it, and he retired, uttering imprecations against "rebels," &c., and forthwith, I suppose, made his complaint to the "immaculate" Billy. There were present, of Mr. Cowles' peculiar friends, some twelve of "Kirk's men," who were armed with rifles, and that was the only armed demonstration. Mr. Cowles was extremely bitter, and denounced in his speech all who had aided the South in the late war as "traitors" that ought to "hang down their heads," while "Kirk's men" and bushwhackers were eulogized for their patriotism, and told that they only were deserving to be trusted and hold public office. God save the mark!

THE buildings being completed and my teachers having arrived, I have opened my Seminary for Girls and Young Ladies near the corner of Third and Orange streets, Wilmington, N. C.

Everything will be taught which can be desired in the thorough education of a lady.

It will be to the advantage of all, that the pupils be entered as early as possible.

Owing to the scarcity of money, my tuition in the English studies will be seventy-five dollars, and in the Primary Department fifty dollars per year.

For further particulars apply to the Principal.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF

HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made. The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Oct. 12, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Geo. T. Cooke, Fayetteville Street, makes several attractive announcements.

See notice of Towles' usual Weekly auction at 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, Boston: Two hundred beautiful songs, etc.

J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis) calls attention to sporting materials, patent balances, &c.

MAHLER'S.—"The finest goods are always put up in the smallest parcels!" This old adage is fully illustrated by a visit to Mahler's little gem establishment on Fayetteville street, opposite the Market House.. The building, though small, is really an ornament to the street and to the city. It not only presents a handsome and tasteful appearance, but is well filled with a choice assortment of jewelry, clocks, and fancy notions. The whole establishment looks as trim and neat as a young lady in her new Fall costume. Clawson, who had charge of the general getting up, showed his usual good taste.

Mahler intends soon to have up a mammoth clock, which will be of great service to the community, now that the old town clock is out of repair and useless.

TRADE SALES.—Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co., Commission Merchants, have introduced a new feature in the business of Raleigh. Their great trade sales, at auction, held monthly, are attracting the attention of country and city dealers, and afford great facilities to purchasers. At these sales any amount of boots, shoes, hardware, nails, liquors, corn, &c., is sold, and parties are enabled to supply themselves without the delay and expense of a visit to Baltimore and other Northern cities. The sale of boots, shoes, salt, corn and hardware, on Wednesday last, was largely attended, and gave general satisfaction.

NO MORE RATIONS.—General Howard, Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau, has issued a circular to his subordinates, notifying them that the issue of rations by the government to the Freedmen ceased on the 1st of October, and instructing them to communicate to the civil authorities of cities and counties their responsibility for future care of indigent and refugee colored people.

SLEEPING CARS.—Two handsomely-fitted and comfortable sleeping cars, to be used on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, passed through Petersburg on Wednesday.

DR. W. H. WHEELER.—Our attention has been called to a statement in the last Salem Press, which we understand gives the true and only reason why Dr. Wheeler was not a candidate for the Legislature. We have not that paper at hand, but learn that the reason given is that the Dr's. private affairs demanded his attention. No political reason for his determination is assigned.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, October 11.—T. D. Lancaster, T. Peal, R. F. Vick, J. Thompson, Edgecomb; J. M. Baiton, Richmond; Jno. T. King, Jno. Williams, Baltimore; R. E. Morecock, R. & G. R.; S. S. Ashley, Wilmington; W. G. Beale, Newbern; F. F. Phillips, wife and seven children, Boon Hill; G. W. Swepson, N. C.; C. P. Cardozo, New York; Gen. W. G. Lewis, Wake Forest; Maj. Mitchell, U. S. A.

THE EYE-AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing, should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

SOME of our exchanges advertise "Cholera Cognac Bitters" We put in juxtaposition two extracts from the advertisement: "It has been used extensively, and without a single failure, relieving the patient in FIVE MINUTES." * * * "DIRECTIONS: A small wine glass full every hour until relieved."

FORSYTHE COUNTY.—The Fall Term of the Superior court for this county is in session the present week,—his Honor, Judge Fowle, presiding. The Winston Sentinel says:

"The Judge's charge to the Grand Jury was a clear and lucid explanation of the law, and his exposition of the duties and responsibilities of the Magistrates was so plain that there could be no difficulty in understanding it. He particularly cautioned the Jury in regard to the negro, representing that they were now an almost helpless race, and that the enemies of the South sought every opportunity to make capital out of every negligence of the law to be used to our injury."

If we were to hazard a conjecture as to the course of the President, in case he should be impeached, it would be that he will object to the competency of the court and refuse to appear. If when the law gives a man the benefit of twelve jurymen, an iniquitous court should attempt to try him before seven, he would refuse to plead. The Constitution gives an impeached officer the right to be tried by seventy-two Senators, and it requires two thirds of the number to convict. If the Radicals attempt to try the President by fifty-two, he has the right to deny the jurisdiction of a court of impeachment so composed.—N. Y. World.

SOUTHERN RELIEF FAIR AT ST. LOUIS.—The great fair for the relief of destitute families was inaugurated at St. Louis, on Wednesday night of last week. Nothing in the history of St. Louis, says the Democrat, can compare with the grand and signal triumph of this great enterprise.

General News.

MR. DAVIS.—In a day or two an official statement of the condition of Mr. Davis' case, with reference especially to the failure to bring the prisoner to trial, will be given to the public, and it is probable that, as suggested in a former despatch, the Chief Justice, Judge Underwood, the United States District Attorney and the United States Marshal of Virginia will be formally notified that the prisoner is now held by the Government, subject to the writ of the United States Circuit Court of Virginia, to answer the indictment found in that court. These officers will doubtless be requested to take immediate possession of the prisoner.—Wash. Cor. Philadelphia Inquirer.

A WONDERFUL OLD LADY.—The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says an old lady named Martha Carson, aged one hundred and three years, six months and three days, died lately in Bib county, Ga. She had cut three sets of teeth, the last being small and like a squirrel's. She never took an active dose of medicine in her life. Up to within six years she would walk two or three miles with the greatest ease. About eight years ago her sight failed, but when she cut her last set of teeth, about two years since, it improved very much. She was born in North Carolina, but has lived in Georgia for sixty years. Her oldest son, William, died in Louisiana a few months ago, at the age of eighty-one or eighty two years. She had eleven children, five of whom are now alive.

Further particulars of the loss of the Evening Star have been received. A despatch from the purser had been received, saying that sixteen were all that were known to be saved, none of them being women. Mr. Paul Ahaiza's Opera Troupe, which reached New York last Thursday, consisting of fifty-nine singers, and Spaulding's circus troupe of about thirty persons, with their paraphernalia and baggage, were on board. Ninety-seven inmates of the New York seraglios, destined for the houses of ill-fame in New Orleans, were also on board, and are supposed to have been lost. The only name mentioned by the telegraph as lost is that of Captain Knapp.

Lieutenant-Governor Cowper, of Virginia, had some difficulty in Portsmouth, on Tuesday, with a negress who refused to give way to him on the side-walk. The negress threw a brick-bat at the Lieutenant Governor, and he returned the blow with a bar of iron, sprawling the dusky maiden, and drawing the claret pretty freely.

The New York Evening Express estimates the total loss by the destruction of St. Patrick's Cathedral and the partial burning of Gunther's stores as high as $670,000.

Barnum's fat woman last week broke down a cab in Toronto, and tumbled out in the mud, greatly exciting the respectful commiseration of the newsboys. The cabman will sue for damages.

The Selma Times says the widow of General Rodes is a guest at the Gee House, accompanied by her brother, Mr. B. T. Woodruff, of Tuscaloosa.

Every surviving candidate of the Whig, American and Republican parties for President or Vice President, except Hannibal Hamlin, supports President Johnson.

A prominent feature of the Pittsburg Convention was a wagon filled with drunken negroes.

The richest man in St. Louis is, according to the late income list, James H. Lucas, whose income is $103,271

Chicago is tunneling her streets to accommodate her increasing travel.

The first silk dress pattern ever made in California was completed on Friday in San Francisco.

The celebrated horse tamer, Prof. J. S. Rarey, died very suddenly at No. 195 St. Clair street, Cleveland, on Thursday afternoon.

Riots in Indiana.

INDIANOPOLIS, Oct. 9.—A terrible riot occurred at Richmond, the county seat of Wayne county, in this State, last night. The "Grand Army of the Republic," composed of radicals, attacked a conservative meeting and drove General Meredith, Colonel Bickell and Judge Gooding from the stand, all narrowly escaping with their lives.

Another riot occurred to-day at Terre Haute, in which Lee Kirtley was shot and killed by a policeman. A number of those engaged in the riot were wounded. Kirtley had been an officer in the army, was a democrat, and is reported as having been a desperate character.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.

A dispatch appeared in the Philadelphia Ledger this morning, dated "Washington" announcing that the President had propounded certain interrogatories to the Attorney General, respecting the constitutionality of Congress, and that an opinion in writing would be given against the legality of that body. The dispatch caused great excitement,—the effect being felt quite seriously in mercantile circles. Gold made an advance to 63¾ during the day, owing to its influence.

There is authority for saying, however, that the statement is not in accordance with fact.—No questions of such a character have ever been submitted by the President to the Law Officer of the government.

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1. 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative notes, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

1866. FALL TRADE. 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS,

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
